The McKinney-Vento Act defines children and youth who are homeless (twenty-one years of age and younger) as:

  - ✓ Sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or a similar reason (sometimes referred to as double-up);
  - ✓ Living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or camping grounds due to lack of alternative adequate accommodations;
  - ✓ Living in emergency or transitional shelters;
  - ✓ Abandoned in hospitals; or
  - ✓ Awaiting foster care placement.
- Children and youth who have a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designated for, or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings.
- Children and youth who are living in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, substandard housing, bus or train stations, or similar settings.
- Migratory children who qualify as homeless because they are living in circumstances described above.
